

NOVEMBER 10-12, 2016

HOUSING SUMMIT

PITTSBURGH, PA

Human Rights & Housing in the 21st Century

Where is Home?

How Housing Instability Affects Us All

Thursday November 10 6:30 PM
120 David Lawrence Hall

Big Money, Globalization & the Affordable Housing Crisis

Friday November 11 7:00 PM
120 David Lawrence Hall

Taking Back the Land: Global Perspectives on Land Reform & the Human Right to Housing

Saturday November 12 9:00 AM-4:30 PM
Frick Fine Arts Building
University of Pittsburgh

Workshops, Cultural Programs, Food & Networking

Please Register toady!

Full Schedule, speakers, and registration:

<http://housingsummitpgh.org>

412-321-5527

Sessions will be Live
Streamed

Free! All are Welcome!

Register now at: housingsummitpgh.org

Co-sponsors: Global Studies Center (University of Pittsburgh), Northside Coalition for Fair Housing, Casa San Jose, Hill District Consensus Group, Hill House Association, Homes for All Coalition, Human Rights City Alliance, Labor Council for Latin American Advancement (LCLAA), United Steelworkers, University Human Rights Network, University of Pittsburgh: Architectural Studies, Consortium for Injury Research and Community Action (CIRCA), School of Social Work, Department of Sociology, Center for Latin American Studies, Office of the Provost-Year of Diversity, Graduate School of Public and International Affairs (GSPIA), University Center for Social and Urban Research (UCSUR)

